G.H.S. at 3:05

Everyone has to adjust to a closed lunch hour—Mrs. Pope, Ike Fesmire.

Returning . . .

September arrives . . . back we come to G.H.S. . . . freshmen adapt, but we all adjust . . . a new principal, a closed lunch hour, schedules . . . make new friends, renew old friendships . . . we're glad to be back . . .

Olin Lee and Franz Beard give our new principal, Mr. Vernon Sills, a hearty welcome.

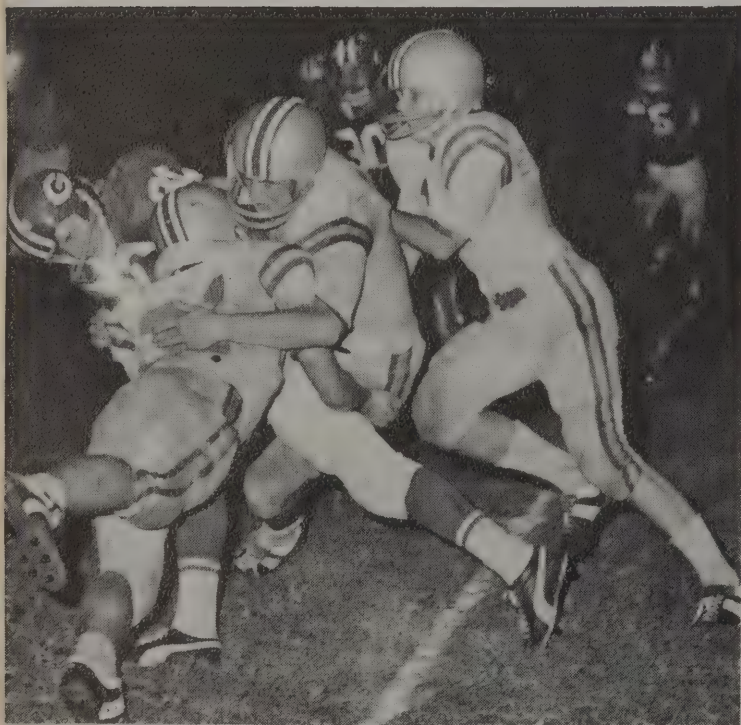

Pep rallies mean the Rinkydinks and spirited music.

Manager Kenneth Dwyer escorts tackle Joe Brabham onto the gridiron.

The Gibson defense hits hard.

Principal Vernon Sills and Superintendent Julian Prince are avid Tiger fans—even in cold weather.

Fall and Football . . .

Summer heat shifts to fall crispness . . . the building of a football team . . . spirited parades, bonfires, and pep rallies . . . the enthusiastic yells of "Tigers are G-r-r-reat!" . . . all these things constitute singular memories of fall and football . . .

Jimmy Nikolaus, band drummer, seems to be all pepped out.

Energetic cheerleaders for the teachers at the Student-Faculty Basketball Game give archaic cheers—Mrs. Daisy Cabler, Mrs. Carolyn Smith.

"Don't slip, Tigers!" yells cheerleader Jennifer Assaf at the cold, rainy Columbia game—Kate Magruder, Barbie Marshall, Connie Felder.

An injured Tiger, Larry Pray, still gives his team moral support.

Spirit . . .

Spirit is an often-used word . . . it means more than yelling at pep rallies . . . it means more than making posters . . . spirit means the will to excel in everything . . .

Challenges . . .

A slide rule and a physics problem present quite a challenge—David Schenck.

To win that debate tournament . . . to pass that biology exam . . . to jump higher than that tall Vicksburg center . . . these are only a few of the challenges daring GHS students . . .

Dissecting a frog is a tedious ordeal—Beth Bornman, Becky Godbold.

"Jump ball" is called. Stretch, Doug!

To meet the challenge of Mr. Dick's history course, Ray Hofmister hits the books.

Pursuits . . .

"The rapture of pursuing is the prize the vanquished gain."
Longfellow . . . seeking . . .
searching . . . always trying to find the key to success and happiness through diverse pursuits.

Halfback Danny Johnson pursues valuable yardage for his team.

Hoping for a superior rating for the band at state contest, Randy White practices diligently.

During their study of the Civil War, Mr. Dick's second period class constructs a large map for convenient reference.

Linda Walker achieved her position in the Jackson Symphony Orchestra by no easy means; it took a lot of practice.

Concentration is a must in playing WFF 'n Proof — Erin McCosker and Whitney Rawlings.

Chosen as an Outstanding Teen-ager of America, Becky DeCoux receives a certificate and congratulations from Mr. Sills.

Caliber. . .

Drum majorette Sharon Busby snaps a salute as the band plays the "Star-Spangled Banner."

Clinging to principles and ideals of a high caliber . . . having what it takes to attain those ideals . . . this means rising above mediocrity . . .

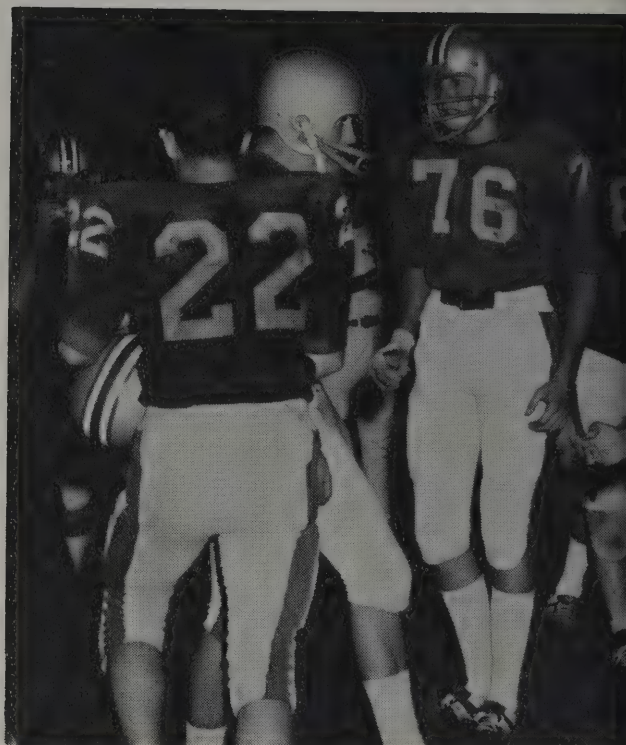

High caliber in teaching means a good education—Mr. A. D. Bramlett.

Conflicts . . .

To live with other people is to be faced with conflicts . . . conflicts between opposing teams . . . conflicts of opinion . . . and conflicts within the individual . . . through the victories, defeats, and compromises one learns a lot about people . . . and a little about himself . . .

During a strenuous football contest every word Coach Halbert says is law.

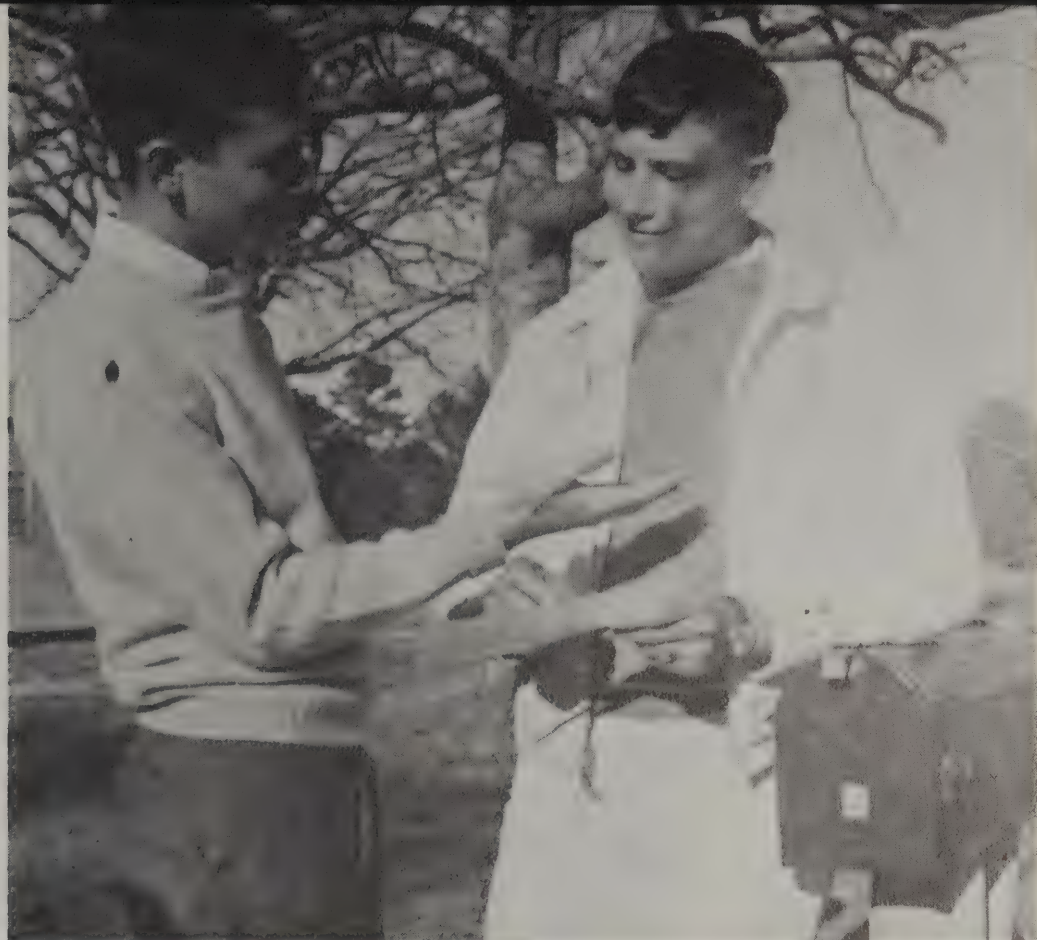

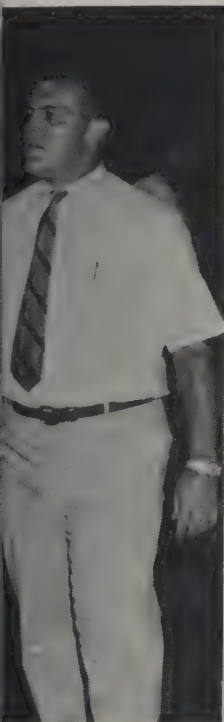

Mrs. Carolyn Smith emphasizes the point of being quiet in class.

Conflicts with one's self are the hardest to overcome: John Henegan ponders over the choice of choosing a college.

"Where's my five dollars, Whitney?" asks Jimmy Brock after completing a victorious round of golf.

Arguing over the solution of a physics problem, Marie Nakle and Donald Price seem to enjoy the discussion.

Holidays . . .

A change in routine is always welcome . . . Thanksgiving . . . Christmas . . . spring . . . the holidays serve as a refreshing break to all . . .

A new Student Council project—decorating a Christmas tree for the halls—is carried out by Becky DeCoux and Suzy Brumfield.

After the dedication assembly, Dan Lewman and John Henegan prepare to deliver their homeroom's Christmas box.

Homeroom delegates dedicate their Christmas boxes in a special assembly.

"What do you want most of all, Kenneth?" asks Santa (Dub Brock).

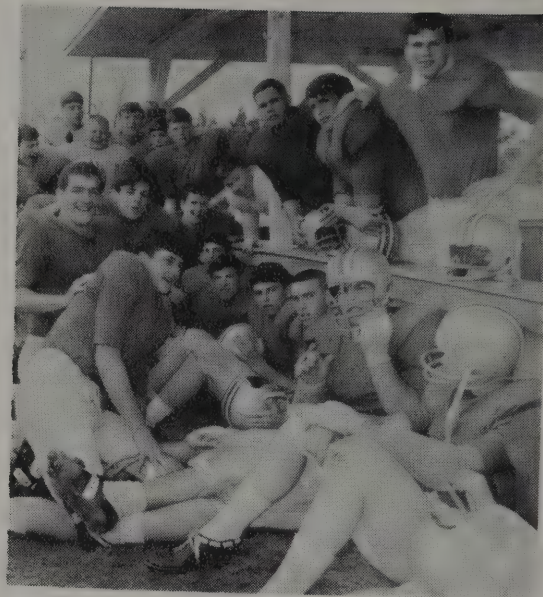

"At last!" think Jimmy Lou Reeves, Jim Alford, and Don Haskins as they leave for spring holidays.

Fun . . .

We found out school can be fun . . . pep rallies . . .
interesting teachers . . .
dances . . . field trips . . . a time to work, and a time to have fun . . .

Is this spring training or a bull session?

Seventh graders, Dennis Ward and Mike Canizaro, find time for fun.

Jim Alford and Don Lazarus take

Lu Lu Holmes is literally "swept off her feet" by debonair Tiger Dub Brock at the closing of the band's half-time show.

Fads . . .

Coach Halbert keeps pace with G. H. S. students in their interest of folk music.

The latest crazes in dancing, the Skate and the Boogaloo, were evident at the Valentine Dance.

Tommy Craig is often seen riding his bicycle, a recent fad of many McCombites.

Heddy Jo Kyzar models the latest word in fashion—the pants dress.

Every year has its new craze . . . the "in" thing . . . whatever makes that year unique in itself . . .

Surprises . . .

Welcome, Mr. Snowman! — Marie Naklie, Mary Vest, Kay Naklie.

Snow, real snow, in southwestern Mississippi? It couldn't happen here . . . but it did . . . no school . . . snowmen . . . snowball fights . . . wet mittens . . . hot chocolate . . . and catching colds.

Preparing for a frontal assault are Tommy Craig and John Marshall.

George Solomon threatens Miss Tumlin and Miss Slaughter with an icy snowball.

Maxine Smith and Roger May walk in their own winter wonderland.

Friendship . . .

Mrs. Brabham, Dub Brock, and Mr. Smith prepare to study the Student Handbook.

"Make new friends, but keep the old" . . . someone to confide in . . . a handshake, a smile . . . a vital part of growing up — a friend . . .

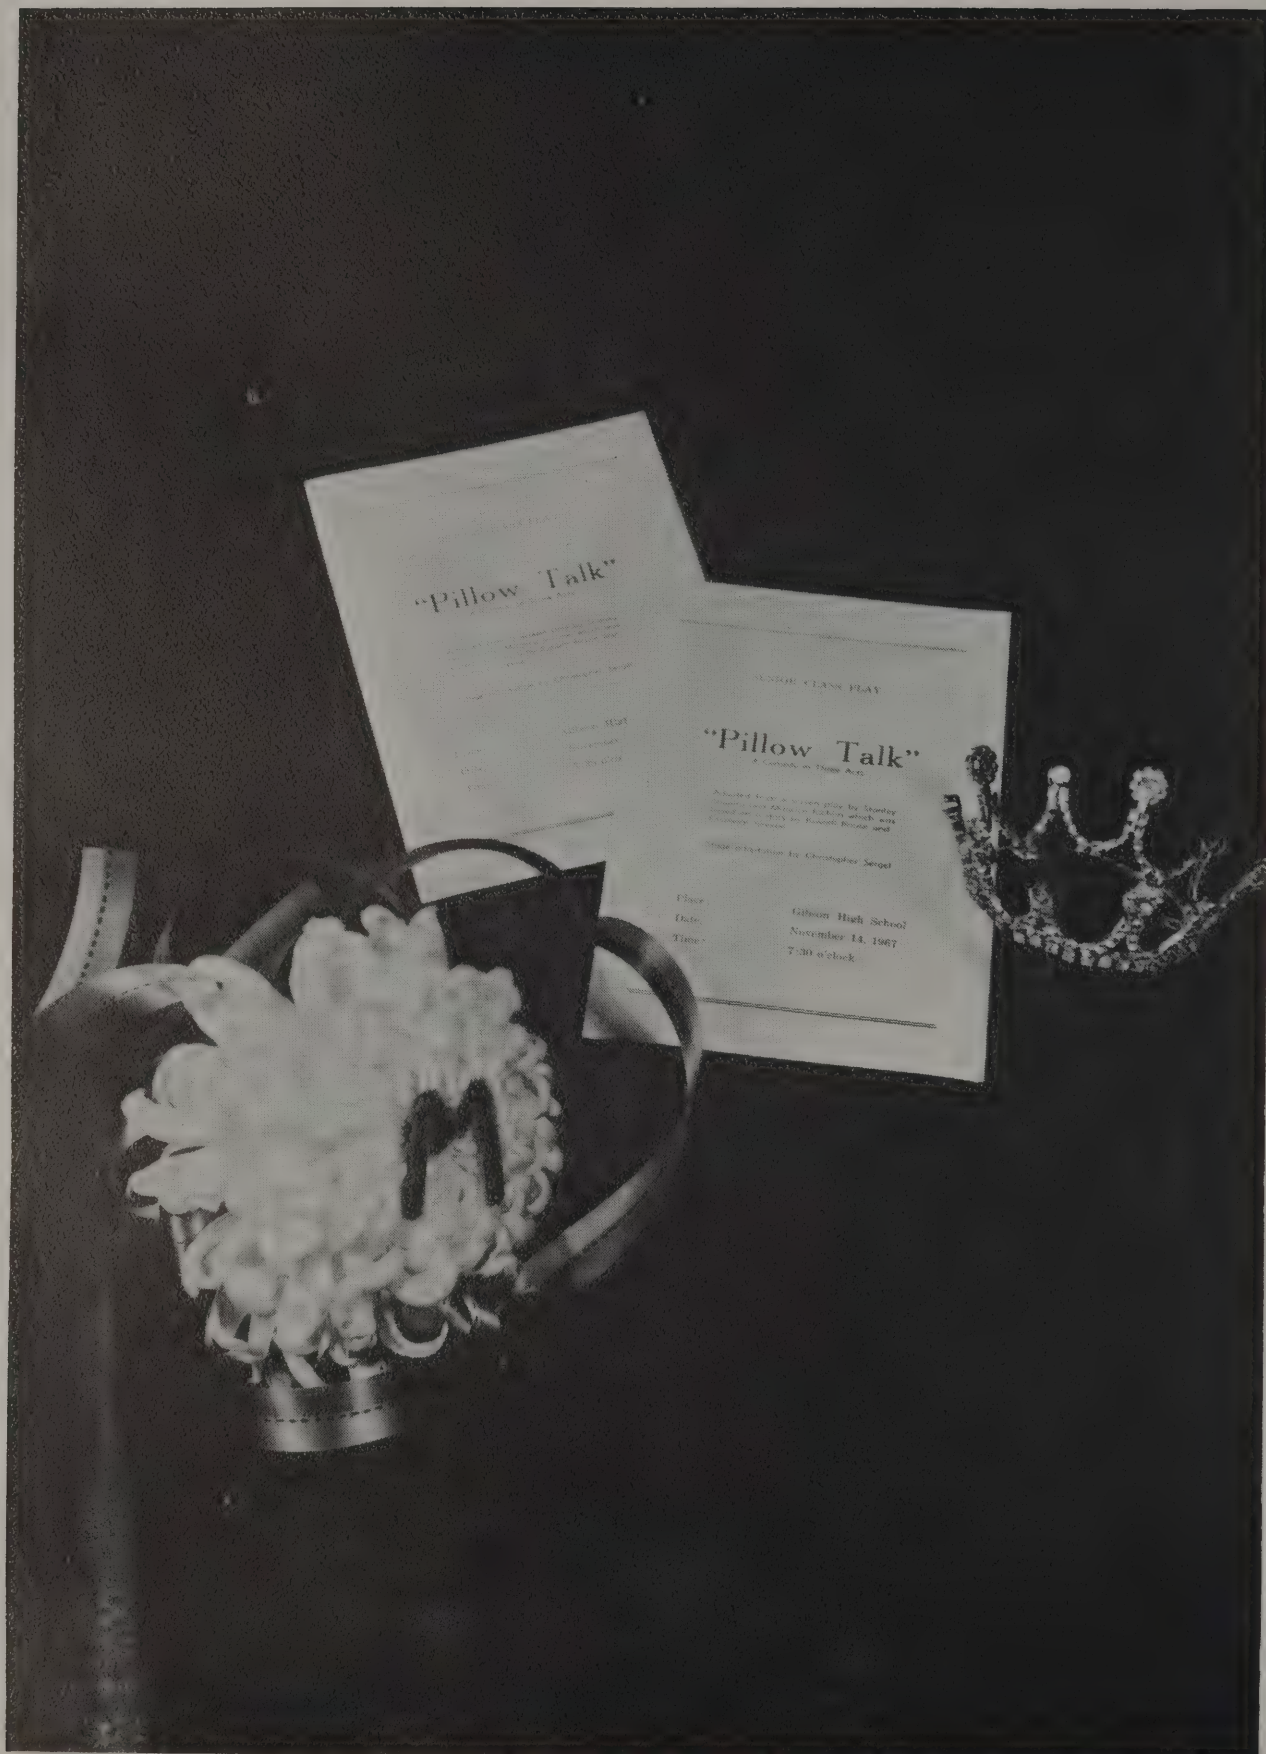

Terry Brister and Cherry Andrews enjoy the remainder of their lunch hour outside.

Gladys Solomon confides in Miss Slaughter, a friend as well as a teacher.

In a very unique way the Latin Club says, "Make slaves out of Hattiesburg!"

The pageantry of Homecoming

At the traditional reception for the homecoming class, Erin McCosker serves our superintendent, Mr. Prince.

Homecoming at GHS always means work, and Homecoming 1967 was no exception: the Student Council organized the reception and assembly program for the class of '58, many clubs and homerooms imaginatively decorated floats and cars for the big parade, the band practiced diligently for a special half-time show built around The Sound of Music, and, of course, the Tiger football team put an extra ounce of spirit into their preparations for the game with Hattiesburg.

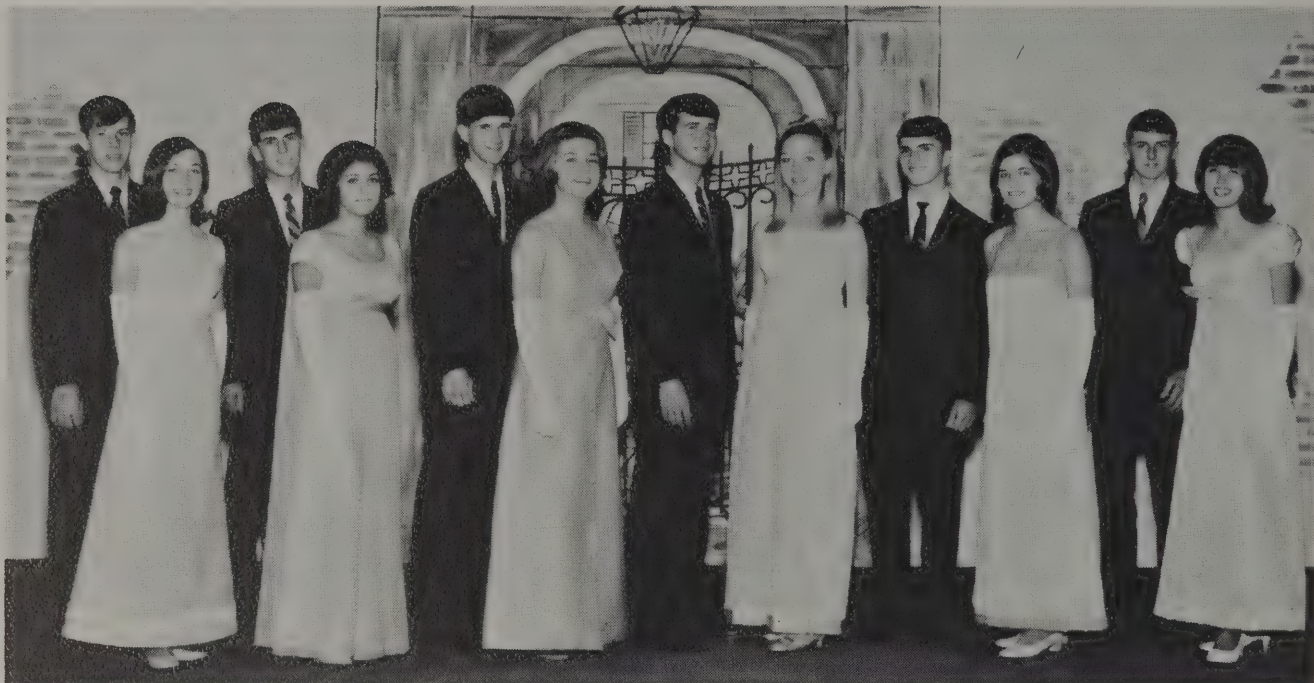

To all who labored so selflessly, the brilliant success of this year's Homecoming was thanks enough.

The glamour of the evening festivities

The Coronation of King Lonny, Queen Suzy, and their Court took place before a packed Tiger stadium on a warm Mississippi night. As principal Vernon Sills crowned Queen Suzy, cameras flashed and the crowd broke into hearty applause.

The pace quickened as the McComb and Hattiesburg Tigers met in a hard-fought game. Victory seemed ours until Hattiesburg scored in the final minutes to slightly dampen our high spirits with a final score of 14-12.

Mrs. Walters (far right, Nancy Mauldin) asks an interior decorator, Jan Morrow (Erin McCosker) for her opinion of the antique statuette. Tony Walters (Randy Brock) and Mr. Pierot, the decorator's assistant (Taylor Thompson), look on.

Brad Allen (Danny Tyler), Miss Morrow's neighbor, is a playboy songwriter. Eileen (Kathy Alford) is disgusted when Yvette (Suzy Brumfield) drops in and brings Brad flowers.

Seniors give successful performance of "Pillow Talk"

After weeks of practice the senior class gave a commendable performance of "Pillow Talk" by Christopher Sergel under the direction of Mrs. Jessye Denman.

This delightful play was viewed by a large audience in the Gibson Auditorium on November 14, 1967.

The play involved an interior decorator and her playboy neighbor, who assumed a double identity. After a long feud they signed a peace treaty of matrimony.

Brad Allen tries desperately to win back Jan Morrow. The maid (Ginger Moore) gives Jan the bouquet an old friend (Hank Mayer) has brought.

Orange and Black Day brings laughter

In honor of Halloween the Tiger Rags staff presented Orange and Black Day. Highlighting the day's events was an assembly program during which the Great Pumpkin paid a visit to Gibson High. Members of the Court of the Great Pumpkin, who had been selected by the newspaper staff, were honored with cornstalks. King Kenneth Dwyer and Queen Gayle Hux were crowned with witches' hats, and Queen Gayle was presented with a long-stemmed cornstalk.

Laughing at the antics and jokes of the various staff members, students and teachers enjoyed this refreshing presentation.

The Witch of Ceremony makes her grand entry—Nancy Mauldin, Tiger Rags Editor.

The Witch of Ceremony presents a cornstalk to Beverly Brent and Kevin Dwyer, Honorary Pumpkin Seeds.

The arrival of the Great Pumpkin (Trisha Gillis) brings applause and laughter.

Powder Puff Football proves to be a rugged game

The annual Powder Puff Football Contest, sponsored by the Girls Athletic Club, was a great success. After weeks of practice the two teams of girls met in a rugged game in which, rules or no rules, there was some hard tackling. The Blue and Red Teams locked in a tie of 7-7—the only scars of battle being various bruises and scratches.

The cheerleaders were the object of much of the crowd's laughter—Bernie Simmons, Marty Bass, Ray Hofmister, Dub Brock, Charles Alford.

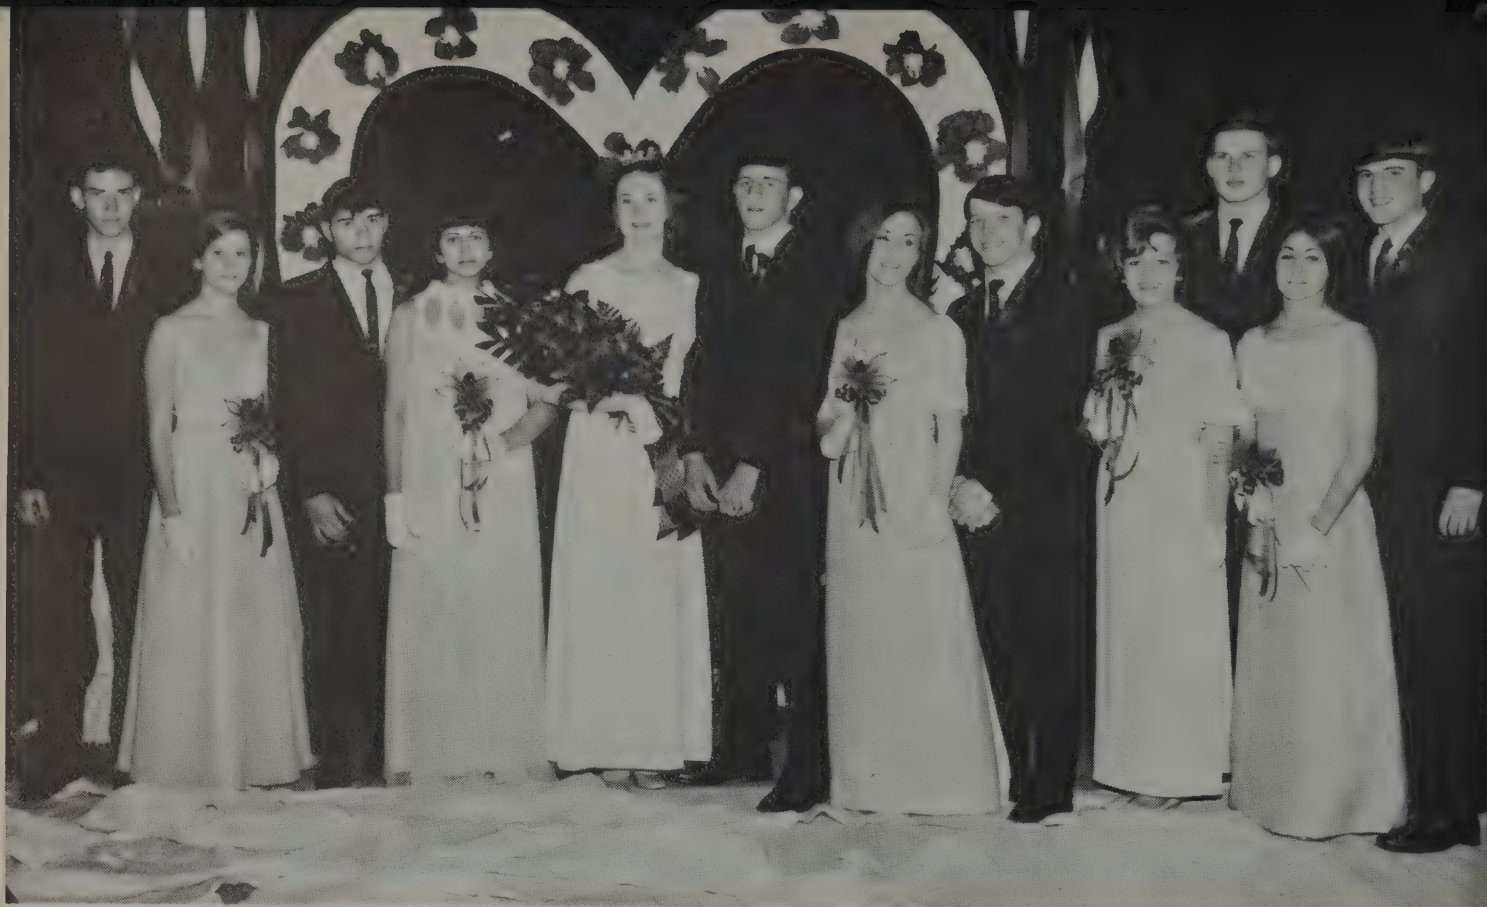

"Sorry, girls—offsides," says referee Whitney Rawlings.

Center Kathy Alford practices on the sidelines.

The 1968 Valentine Court: Jimmy Brock, Elise Alford, Glen Giaccone, Marie Nakile, Queen Nancy Mauldin, King Ted Milton, Cathy Alford, John Henegan, Connie Felder, Jack Brabham, Glenda Solomon, Norman Gillis.

Unusually attractive valentine decorations and a striking court highlighted the 1968 Valentine Dance, sponsored by the Student Council. A large crowd applauded the royal court as the maids, pages, and finally Queen Nancy Mauldin and King Ted Milton walked down the runway. After being crowned, Queen Nancy and her king led the court in the first dance, "Darling, Be Home Soon."

The rest of the night was spent in dancing to the music of the Basement Wall.

A cute addition to the Court: Kevin Gunter, Crown Bearer, and Elizabeth Brown, Flower Girl

Although the varsity Tigers finished the season with only a 5-4-1 record, our coaching staff felt that we still had much of which to be proud. Matched against some of the outstanding teams of the state, our boys always played a hard-fought game. The lettermen, chosen by the Halbert system, are featured in the individual pictures on the following pages.

its ups and downs

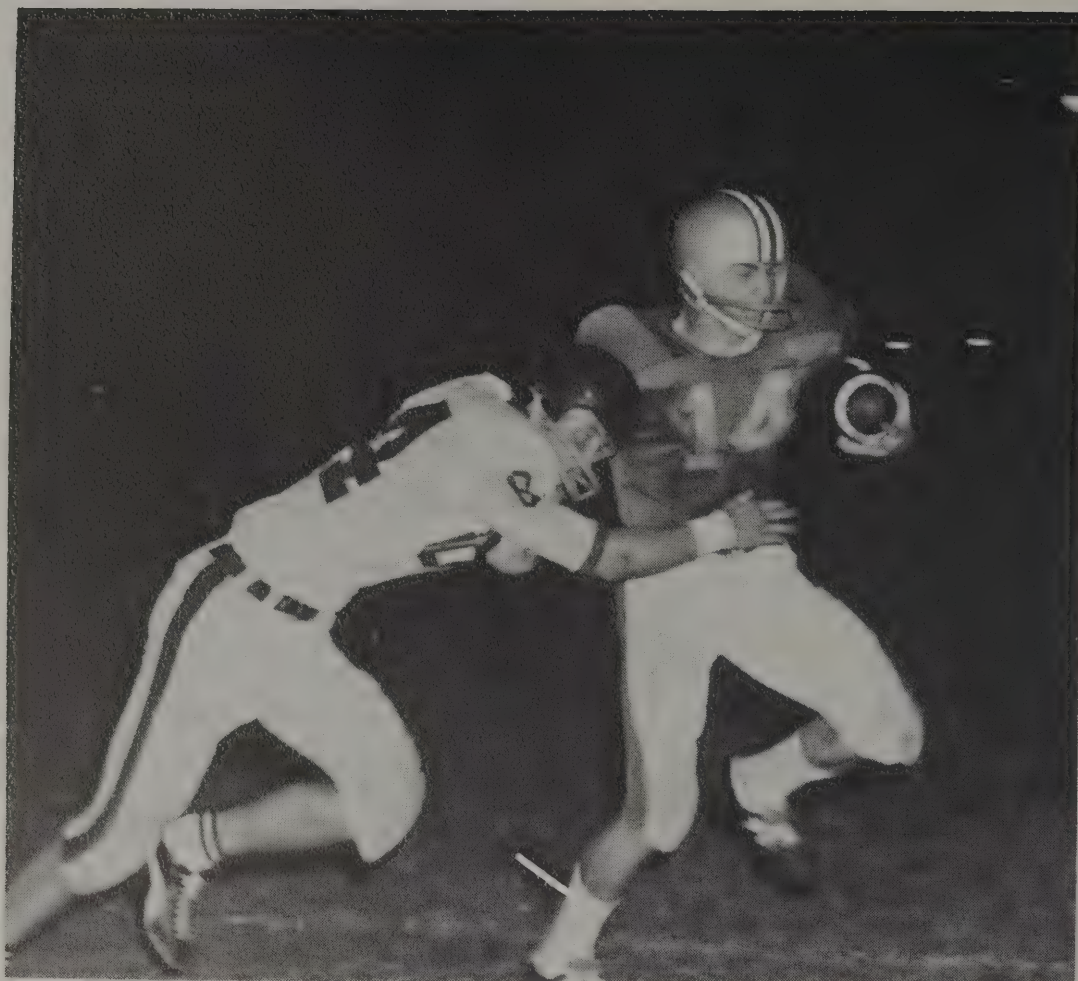

Head Coach Frank R. Halbert and Line Coach Mike Nelson concentrate on a crucial play.

Offensive Line Coach Tryce Barber and Backfield Coach William Crosby pause before a tough afternoon's practice session.

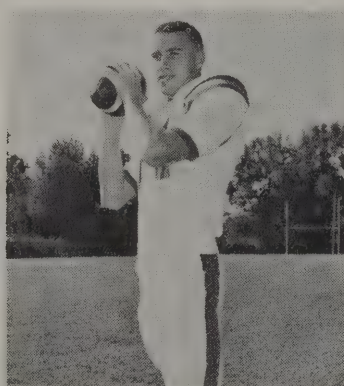

Terry Brister says, "Not now, Buddy!"

Opening the season with a contest against Wingfield, McComb got off to a brilliant start when Terry Brister threw a touchdown pass to Tommy Gatlin. Wingfield's desperation 45 yard field goal was good, causing the Tigers to lose their momentum. Scoring three more times, Wingfield put the game on ice. Terry Brister scored in the last few minutes of the fourth quarter, only to see his team lose 28-14.

Inklings of a Tiger victory came early in the second quarter, when Ronnie Holmes tackled Picayune's quarterback in their end zone for a safety. After McComb received a free kick, Danny Johnson careened across the goal line for the score. A Tiger drive landed on the goal line when the final buzzer was heard and McComb was victorious 15-13.

Natchez' speed and quickness were too much for the Tigers. Natchez jumped to an early lead, but McComb battled back when Larry Pray broke three tackles on a 45 yard run to put the Tigers back in the game. Milton's extra point was no good, and McComb trailed at the half 7-6. Natchez then put three tallies on the board. McComb's final drive was capped by a 14 yard run by Terry Brister. Gaining over 200 yards on pass receptions in this game, Larry Pray made a name for himself.

McComb and Provine battled hard to a scoreless tie. The Tigers' defense came through time and time again to prevent the Rams from scoring. The calling back of a Provine touchdown was a fortunate break for the weakened Tigers. The game ended with Provine missing a 40 yard field goal.

Friday the thirteenth proved to be unlucky for the Tigers, as Gulfport Commodores edged McComb 13-0. Gulfport's defense was too much for the crippled Tigers. Phil Abernathy's 60 yard interception for a touchdown was called back because of a penalty. Dan Lewman made another gallant try by intercepting a pass, but the drive following fell far short.

a suspense-packed contest

Danny Johnson gains valuable yardage.

Homecoming was spoiled by Hattiesburg after a fine effort on the part of the Gibson Tigers. Hattiesburg opened the game with a long pass for an early touchdown. McComb then got on the scoreboard after a five yard run by Terry Brister. McComb's extra point was blocked. Gibson High then jumped ahead on a six yard run by Phil Abernathy. The second half was mainly a defensive battle with Hattiesburg scoring in the last 55 seconds to gain the margin of victory. The game ended with McComb on the Hattiesburg 12 yard line.

McComb, after losing two previous games in the closing seconds, was suppressed by the Laurel Tornadoes in a scoreless game for McComb. Late in the game a pass interference penalty, which gave McComb a first down on the eleven yard line, was stalled as Laurel held on succeeding downs. Failing to get a well sustained drive going, the Tigers lost the game 49-0.

Wildcats, despite freezing weather.

A frigid Friday night was the setting for a McComb-Columbia clash. Terry Brister opened the scoring with a three yard run for the touchdown. After Danny Johnson darted in for the second score, Milton added the extra point. A touchdown by Brister late in the third quarter added to the Tiger margin. After a long play from their 21 yard line, the Wildcats made their first appearance on the scoreboard. Late in the fourth quarter, Tommy Gatlin intercepted a pass and went in to score, ending the game 25-6.

Tigers take two from Gulfport East and Ole Brook

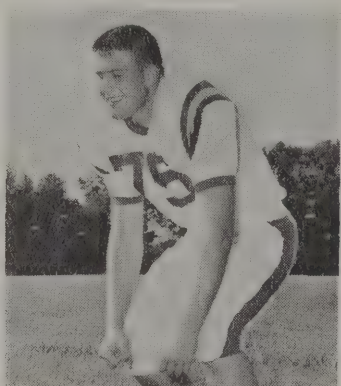

Pulling off a major upset, the Gibson High Tigers mauled a top ranked Gulfport East team by a score of 34-14. Opening the scoring in the first quarter, Lynn Gaskin set the pace for the rest of the game. Terry Brister picked up his own fumble and raced in for a second score. Clifton Davis, after breaking no less than five tackles, made a 45 yard run to add to McComb's Margin. With only 16 seconds left in the first half, Gulfport East punted to Terry Brister on his own 40 yard line. He promptly returned it for a touchdown. Early in the second half, Danny Johnson caught a Terry Brister pass in the end zone for the Tigers' final score. Gulfport East finally scored twice in the last quarter only to be humiliated by the 34-14 Tiger victory.

At the conclusion of the first quarter, Phil Abernathy crashed over the Panther goal line to set the pace for the rest of the game. Lynn Gaskin cinched the game for McComb with his interception for a touchdown. The game ended with a score of 14-0 favorably put on McComb's record.

Held on December 15, 1967, in the Gibson High cafeteria, the 1967 Touchdown Club Banquet featured Rev. David McIntosh, pastor of Leavell Woods Methodist Church in Jackson, as guest speaker. The presentations of awards to outstanding players of the Tiger gridiron team were made.

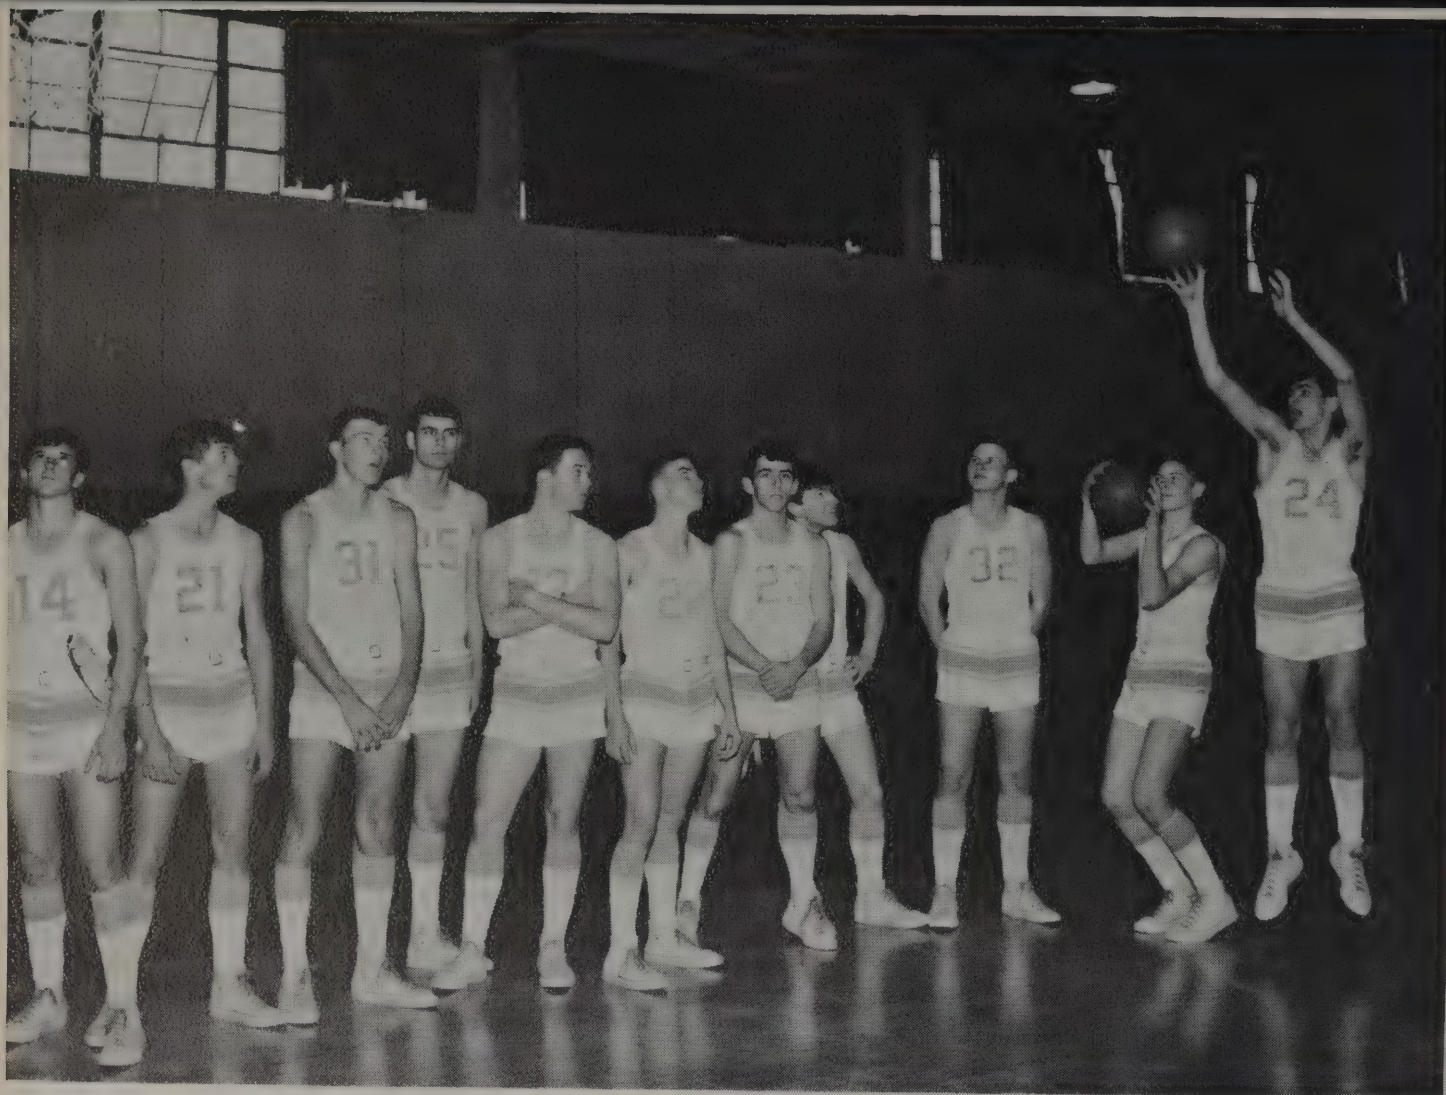

Rev. McIntosh, who made the All Big-Eight Team while playing football for the McComb Tigers, returned to his Alma Mater to give a moving speech on sportsmanship.

The trophies presented were donated by various businesses and organizations: Most Valuable Player, donated by Hainer's; Permanent Team Captain, Touchdown Club; Most Valuable Lineman, Rotary Club; Most Valuable Back, Lions Club; Most Improved Player, Sam's Sport Shop; Most Hustling Non-Letterman, Charles Parker trophy given by Parker Auto Parts; Sportsmanship trophy, Touchdown Club.

An enthusiastic crowd of players, their dates, and interested parents and businessmen attended the memorable event.

Cagers experience a rugged season

The Gibson High Cagers were confronted with a rugged season this year. Although the team netted only a 14-15 record, Tiger fans know the season was more successful than the scoreboard indicated. Several contests were extremely close, such as the three point loss to Laurel and two four point losses to Brookhaven.

Besides several close defeats, the varsity squad scored some narrow victories. Among these wins was a cliff hanger with our traditional rival, South Pike, in which the Tigers defeated the Bearcats 58-57 in overtime.

Highlighting the season were victories over the strong Gloster and Vicksburg teams. The second game with the Vicksburg Greenies proved to be another thriller ending in overtime with McComb spurting ahead 73-67.

In the South Pike and McComb Invitational Tournaments the Tigers, fighting hard and reaching the finals, finished both tournaments as runners-up.

Almost blocking Jerry Davis' shot, a Liberty player commits a foul.

Leaping high and aiming carefully, Danny Wells raised the score.

By netting a 12-6 record, the Cager B-team proved itself potential varsity material. In fact, two players, Phil Horn and Jerry Davis, were promoted to the varsity squad in the latter part of the season, and two other B-team members, Steve Blue and Doug Elting, were chosen as alternates.

High-scorer Phil Horn is shown in action.

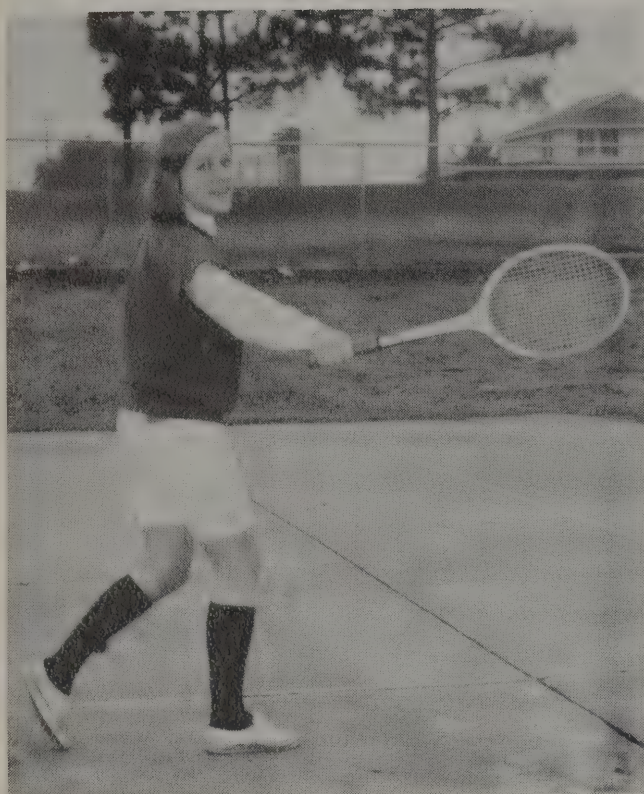

The squad provided fans with many exciting contests, such as the Vicksburg thriller which our boys won 65-63 in over-time. Outstanding on the court as high scorers were Phil Horn, Danny Wells, and Steve Blue.

The tennis team makes quite a racquet

Gibson High is very proud of its tennis program, which is under the direction of Coach Billy Carruth. Since many of our talented players have left, this year's team is faced with the problem of rebuilding its strength.

Those tennis enthusiasts who are chosen for the team will compete in meets held at Natchez, Crystal Springs, Natchez Cathedral, and Brookhaven.

Gail Gilbert tries to straighten out her backhand.

The track team covers a lot of ground

Under the supervision of Coach Buddy Crosby, the Gibson High Track Team is looking forward to a good season.

Sprinters include Ronnie Hammonds, Kenna Thornton, Barry Brueck, Phil Abernathy, Terry Brister, Clifton Davis, Spike Simmons, and Jerry Hughes. Billy Reed, Tommy Craig, and Wayne Lambert work as distance runners. Weight men, Ronnie Holmes and Ray Hofmister; hurdler, Jerry Davis; and pole vaulter, Chuck Lax and Phil Horn, also play an important role. Spike Simmons and Clifton Davis participate in the long jump. The Gibson team is looking forward to victories in track meets at Franklin County, Brookhaven, Hazlehurst, and Jackson. They also plan to compete at District, South State, State, and the Big Eight Meets.

During the concert season the majorettes join the ranks of the band to play their respective instruments.

Precision marching

MR. JOE R. DANIEL
Director

With spirited marches played in the stands and brilliant half-time shows executed on the field, the Gibson High Band is a vital part of all home football games. The band also travels to several out-of-town games. This organization appears in many parades in this area and provides music for other civic and school functions.

After football season, a Christmas concert is prepared. Then the director, Mr. Joe R. Daniel, concentrates on the state band contest at which bands are judged in the concert, marching, and sight-reading divisions.

In Junior high an aspiring band member first joins the beginner band. Then he advances to the Denman Junior High Band, which participates in parades and gives several concerts. Upon reaching the ninth grade, he graduates to the GHS Band and in this company completes a well-rounded band program.

Julian D. Prince,

Mr. Prince confers with Mr. Don Richmond, Programmer Operator, and Mr. Renan Richmond, Programming Supervisor, on matters concerning data processing of school records.

Elementary co-ordinator, Mrs. Vera Rhodes, along with Mr. Prince, analyzes the entire school program.

an outstanding superintendent

Superintendent Julian D. Prince

Every administration has its leader, and the McComb Public School System has an exceptional one, Superintendent Julian D. Prince. A man of diverse interests, Mr. Prince somehow finds time to teach a physics class and to attend football games and yell with his usual enthusiasm.

We are all very proud to have such a capable administrator, who has achieved fame in the field of education. Keeping up with the most recent educational developments, Mr. Prince innovates school programs. To you, Mr. Prince, and all the many others who have worked to make this school year successful, we of the Camellian staff say, "Thank you!"

McComb School Board: Mr. William Neville, Jr.; Mr. B. Frank Watkins, President; Mr. Louis Alford, Secretary; Mrs. W. S. Blue, Vice President; Mr. James Lambuth.

The McComb School Board is composed of dedicated civic leaders who have the basic responsibility of policy-making for the McComb Public School System and operation of the eleven schools in the district. Of the five-member board, three are appointed by the McComb City Board, and two are elected by the people who live in the territory of the school district outside the McComb city limits. Serving without financial compensation, the board has its reward—the satisfaction of service in providing for the educational needs of the young people of the community.

McComb School Board

All trustees strive to strengthen the local educational system through constant evaluation and long term planning. The officers are Mr. B. Frank Watkins, President; Mrs. W. S. Blue, Vice President; Mr. Louis Alford, Secretary.

Other Administrators

Mr. Warren Fesmire

Mr. R. W. Lambuth

The McComb Separate School System is fortunate to have these qualified administrators. Mr. R. W. Lambuth serves as Assistant Superintendent and Director of the Regional Data Processing Center. Also serving as Assistant Superintendent is Mr. Warren Fesmire, who functions as Director of Instruction.

Mr. Vernon Sills

GHS Officials

Mrs. Louise Kimbrell

A new addition to the Gibson High scene this year is Mr. Vernon Sills, Supervising Principal. In the opinion of the student body, Mr. Sills, one who personifies school spirit, has done an outstanding job this year.

Mrs. Louise Kimbrell, who has been a member of the high school faculty for many years, fills the capacity of Building Principal this year. Serving formerly as high school librarian and Acting Principal, Mrs. Kimbrell has contributed much to the education of many.

Other able leaders lend their talents

MR. JOHN LOWERY, Denman Junior High Principal
MRS. KATHLEEN BECK, Secretary

MISS CHARLOTTE CRAWFORD
Gibson High Secretary

At Denman Junior High Mr. John Lowery is at the helm. A former coach and science teacher, he now serves well as an administrator.

Where would administrators be without secretaries? Miss Crawford and Mrs. Beck are very important factors in maintaining orderliness and efficiency in our school offices.

Counselors contribute assistance and encouragement

MRS. WILLIE FAYE WHITE
B. A., M. Ed.
Gibson Guidance Counselor

The place to go with problems is the guidance department. The counselors are invaluable in arranging one's schedule to suit his needs and in coping with problems of adjustment.

Much information about colleges and vocations can be found in the counselors' offices. By playing the role of psychiatrist-friend, the counselors make our problems seem much smaller.

MRS. JO KIMBLE

By completely adopting courses in modern mathematics, the math department is expanding its program to familiarize its students with the freedom of mathematics. For the advanced student, courses in computer math and trigonometry have been included in the high school range of instruction.

Experimentation plays an important role in our science department. In addition to the experiments performed in chemistry, our advanced biology classes were an experiment in themselves. Our social studies teachers do not emphasize studying history for history's sake but rather for gleaning the truth and sagacity from mankind's past actions. Employing the standard techniques of lectures and the use of maps, surveys, and research, they adequately prepare a student for citizenship and college.

"Men are polished through act and speech."

John Trowbridge

Encouraging poise and self-assurance in public speaking, the speech department has both private and group classes. This year the debate team, under the direction of Mrs. Brooks, has won many honors in state and regional tournaments.

Sixth period speech students go over a few pointers for good speech habits with Mrs. Brooks.

Vocational aspects of G.H.S. curriculum

This rapidly-expanding department offers training to students for practical trades. Both Gibson High and Denman Junior High have excellent shop facilities. The mechanical drawing classes offer inspiration and training for future engineers and architects.

In a separate building off campus the two-unit auto mechanics classes are taught. Here students receive training in the field of mechanics with the most modern equipment available.

Concentration! — Darlene Hudspeath

Beginning in the eighth grade, four courses in home economics are offered. In the earlier courses the basic skills of sewing, cooking, and meal planning are stressed, but in Home Ec. II and III girls explore new fields in home management and child psychology.

"Make haste slowly."

Caesar Augustus

Driver Education is a must for teenagers today; defensive driving is the key to accident prevention. For instruction and training in this Gibson High has excellent facilities: a 1967 Oldsmobile and a driving simulator in which a student watches a film of an imaginary motor route and operates his controls accordingly. A computer grades the student's performance.

MR. BENNIE KIMBLE

In the driving simulator Louis Smith and Dan Lewman demonstrate correct techniques.

For the student who plans to enter the business world, Gibson High offers courses in Distributive Education and Business Office Education besides the standard courses of typing, shorthand, and business law.

In the DE program Mr. Ronald Smith works closely with Pike merchants in placing students in their downtown training stations. Classroom work and on-the-job training are closely correlated to improve the efficiency of persons engaged in distribution and marketing occupations.

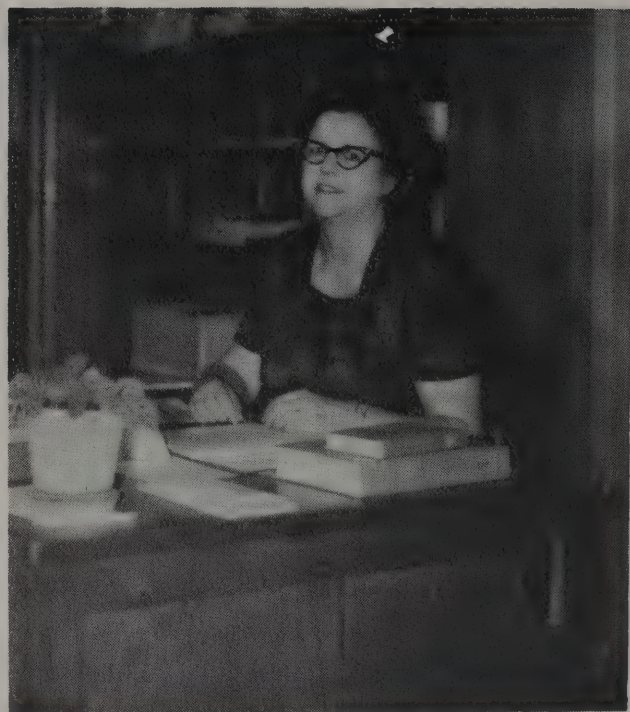

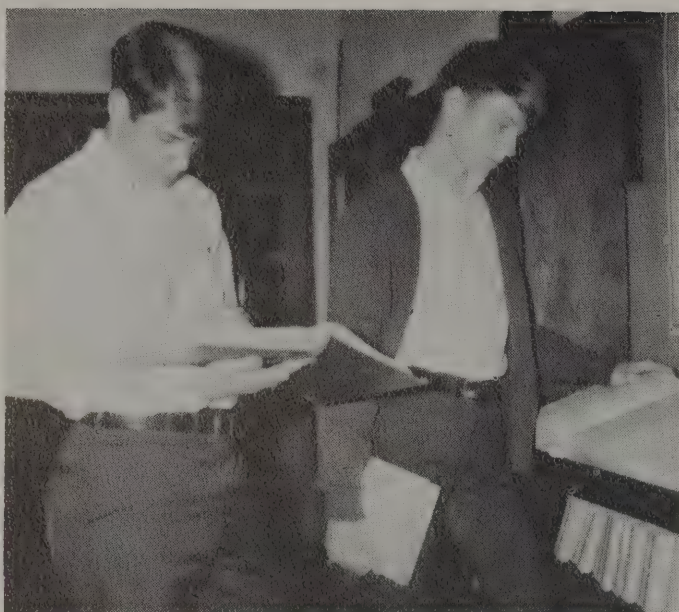

The BOE program, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Perkins, trains students for secretarial work.

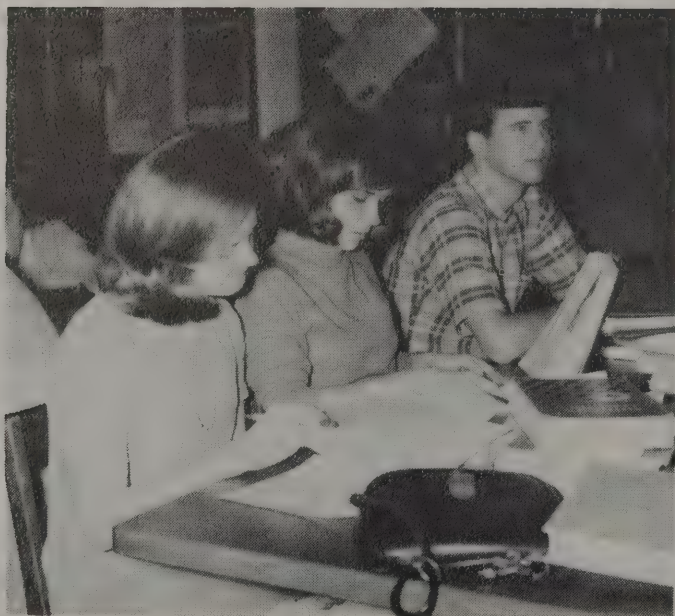

Students Beverly Hare and Mellie Case gain practical know-how through the BOE program.

"Man builds no structure which outlives a book."

Eugene Ware

Study and research, all-important factors of a good education, is carried on in our well-equipped libraries. Since many students are unfamiliar with library science, a study of this field is made in the English department, which receives valuable cooperation from the librarians. That every student should be familiar with research techniques in the library is one goal of the librarians and English instructors.

For the musically inclined students, an active music department provides many opportunities for them to display their talents. The band participates in football games, parades, concerts, and the state band contest. The chorus, sextette, and piano students perform for various civic groups in town and attend the district and state contests. Music is another important facet of a well-rounded education.

Despite the rush and the confusion, the 1968 Camellian was "put to bed" at last. We, the co-editors, would like to express our sincere appreciation to the administration and to the students for their co-operation. We would also like to give special thanks to Miss Slaughter, Mr. Balser, the Photo-Art Shop, and the Enterprise-Journal. Of course, without the dedication of the Camellian staff our deadlines could never have been met.

May this book serve as a record of the events and personalities which have made this, the school year 1967-68, a unique and treasured memory.

Sincerely,

Linda

Sharon
